BREITLING MARKS A CENTENARY IN ORBIT

To honour what would've been astronaut Scott Carpenter's 100th birthday, Breitling has released a platinum tribute: the Navitimer B02 Chronograph 41 Cosmonaute, limited to just 50 pieces. A nod to the first Swiss wristwatch in space—worn by Carpenter during his 1962 Aurora 7 mission – the new model channels the original's pioneering essence with a rich blue dial, 24-hour display,

COSC-certified hand-wound movement, and engraved caseback. It's a celebration not just of craftsmanship, but of courage. The original, now corroded from post-splashdown raft exposure, is on display at Breitling's Then & Now exhibit. With vintage AOPA wings and an alligator strap, this centenary edition is far more than a watch. It's a story – strapped to your wrist. www.breitling.com

RESORT TO STYLE

H&M's Resort 2025 Capsule collection features airy dresses, kaftans and knits, alongside bold, minimalistic silhouettes in tailoring and denim separates. The colour palette ranges from calming terracotta and sandy beiges with black and crisp white to the most vibrant blues. Key pieces include a cropped beige cotton jacket with a curved statement neckline, stud embellishment and heavily embroidered pattern. It can be paired with engineered curved-leg beige jeans with studded side seams. Printed full-length kaftans flow beautifully in custom patchwork prints that layer iconic Moroccan motifs, and accessories include a terracotta bikini with asymmetric top, a light terracotta suede bag with whipstitch detailing, sunglasses, and jewellery. Radiating with confidence, each piece is ready for a magical getaway.

REDEFINED BOLDNESS: JIMMY CHOO MAN EXTREME

For the man who lives for adventure, Jimmy Choo Man Extreme is a fearless expression of energy and elegance. This modern twist on the original 2014 fragrance opens with red thyme and black pepper, unfolds into clary sage and geranium, and settles into warm amber woods, tonka bean, and vetiver. Master perfumers Anne Flipo and Tanguy Guesnet envisioned a scent that captures the intensity of red – fresh, vibrant, and undeniably masculine. Housed in a striking scarlet bottle with silver detailing, it's a scent that lingers with bold sophistication. Fronted by model Marlon Teixeira, this fragrance captures the thrill of the outdoors – unapologetically masculine and undeniably magnetic. Available at Woolworths.
