EMERALD INSTINCT

Roberto Cavalli deepens its Signature collection with Verde Assoluto Eau de Parfum and Uomo Verde Assoluto, two fragrances that channel an opulent, jungle-inspired mood. Verde Assoluto for her blends bright mandarin with creamy gardenia, before easing into a warm base of amber woods and vanilla. The result is sensual yet composed, polished without losing its edge. Uomo Verde Assoluto builds on the original Uomo with a richer, spicier profile. A layered spice accord meets earthy patchouli and vibrant amber, creating a confident woody scent with real presence. Uomo Verde Assoluto is available in 100ml and Signature Verde Assoluto in both 30ml and 75ml bottles at select retailers.

VOLPES EVERYDAY LUXURY

There's something undeniably inviting about a boutique hotel bedroom: crisp white sheets, layered textures, and a sense of calm that instantly slows the pace. With Volpes, The Home of Linen, recreating that everyday luxury at home is simple. Start with quality cotton bedlinen in fresh whites or soft neutrals, paired with supportive pillows and a plush duvet inner for that perfectly made-bed feel. Layer in a textured throw or quilt for depth, and complete the experience with indulgent towel sets and subtly scented fragrances. Minimalistic styling keeps the space serene, allowing comfort and quality to take centre stage. Thoughtfully chosen essentials can transform an ordinary bedroom into a restful retreat – proof that luxury doesn't have to be reserved for weekends away. PERFECTION IN A BOTTLE

At Terre Paisible, excellence starts in the soil. Only fruit from the estate's own vineyards, along with carefully chosen parcels where terroir expresses true varietal character, makes the cut. That uncompromising approach gives winemaker Adam Mason the canvas he needs to shape each vintage with patience and precision. The Terre Paisible Isabelle Rosé, created in honour of the estate's owners, is limited to just 1,965 bottles. A blend of 60% Grenache and 40% Mourvèdre from dryland vineyards in Stellenbosch, it pours a pale salmon with copper glints. Aromas of rose petals, pomelo zest and stone fruit unfold gently, edged by delicate marzipan. Lees ageing brings texture and savoury depth, finishing long, poised and beautifully composed. www.terrepaisible.com
